Foreword

We, the annual staff of Troutville High School, present to you this twenty-fifth edition of the WARRIOR.

Since the first day that we left our homes to enter school we have passed through many doors. Every door has opened upon a new experience or a new adventure. But Troutville has impressed us with more than her doors. She has been our inspiration, and her foundations are the immaterial things which year after year she has bestowed upon us. Within her walls we have found an atmosphere of spiritual and intellectual nourishment and lasting friendships.

It has been said that our school gives in return only as much as the student himself gives. Whether this be true or not, none of us can ever repay the wealth Troutville has given to us in our understanding of books, people and life itself.

Our hope is that through this, our yearbook, your memories of Troutville will remain always with you.

We who are extremely grateful, wish to express our appreciation, and show our sincere admiration and respect to one who has helped to make our problems lighter. We, therefore, dedicate this, the twenty-fifth volume of the Warrior to you,
Mrs. Velva S. Sutphin.

Faculty

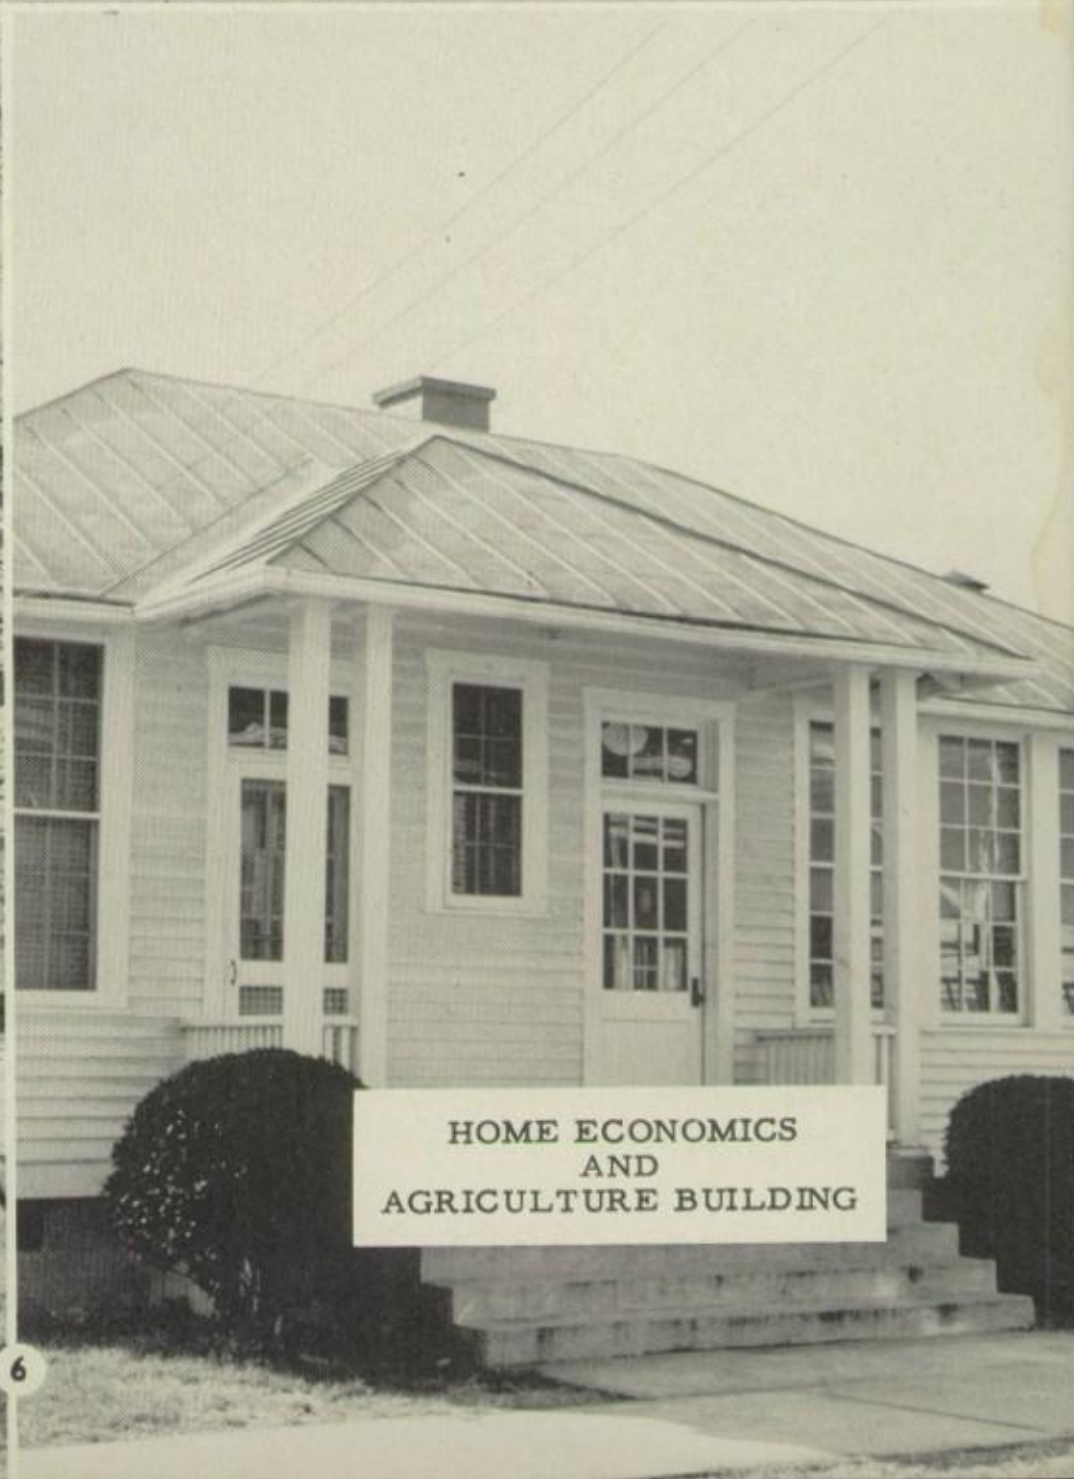

The faculty could well be represented by an antique door. Just as an antique door has served and helped people for many years, so has our faculty worked faithfully and well to start us out on life. Their untiring efforts are a thing we should all remember in the years to come.

Students

Through the school door pass the most vital cogs in the success of the school--the student. The truth in this statement is readily seen because the students are the ones who make the school what it is today. They are the ones who win the awards, ball games, and diplomas. Actually we should remember that the students and school door go hand in hand to make a good school.

SENIORS

We started our high school years in 1952 when we entered the eighth grade as the class of '57. Mrs. Maddex and Mrs. Bunn were our sponsors and Edna Huffman was elected president. We didn't enter to many activities that year because we were just getting used to the new way of going to school, the changing of classes, and having a different teacher every period. For our first May Day we chose Janice Potter and Sylvia Bowman to represent us.

In our freshman year, many boys and girls started entering different sports. We were a slightly smaller class, now numbering only 47. Mr. Moore and Mrs. Sutphin were our sponsors. We picked Yvonne Jennings, a newcomer, president of the class. Janice Potter and Yvonne Jennings represented us at the May Day festival.

As our sophomore year rolled along we were more settled in high school and most of us belonged to one or more clubs. Our total enrollment was 39. When we organized, we selected Barry Taylor president. One of our students, Janice Potter, was elected secretary-treasurer of the Student Government. Mr. Yates and Miss Ferguson were our sponsors. Six of our boys were on the football team.

When we became juniors in 1955, our membership had diminished. We were only 34 in number, but the spirit was still there. Cecil Dunbar was elected class president, and Barry Taylor, one of our students was elected vice-president of the Student Government. Mrs. Siford was the sponsor that year. Our junior play, "The Girl Next Door," after many interruptions, was a huge success. Nine of our students were tapped by the Beta Club. The highlight of our year was entertaining the seniors. After much planning and a lot of hard work, we arranged a picnic and day's outing at Lakeside. A good time was had by all.

The year 1956 saw us enter school as seniors with a class of 25. We chose Dennis Howell as our president. David Osborne and Dennis Howell were chosen co-captains of the football team. Our sponsor is again Miss Ferguson. Jerry Henderson is editor of the yearbook and Barry Taylor is president of the Student Government.

We, the class of '57, would like to give our thanks to all the teachers who have helped us through these last five years, and to say that without your kindness to us all it would never have been possible.

Classes

As one passes through a classroom door they come upon one of the most important factors in the school--the classes. This is certainly true for, without classes, there would be no school. So, let us think of the importance of classes as we go in and out of the classroom doors.

Mrs. Murray strikes up a happy tune for W. Duffy, S. Bowman.

Mr. Yates calls out the typing drill for D. Osborne, D. Snider, J. Henderson, R. Simmons, N. Knotts, B. Taylor.

Miss Ferguson instructs future citizens R. Keith, V. Cook, B. Wood, C. Dunbar, J. Settles in Government.

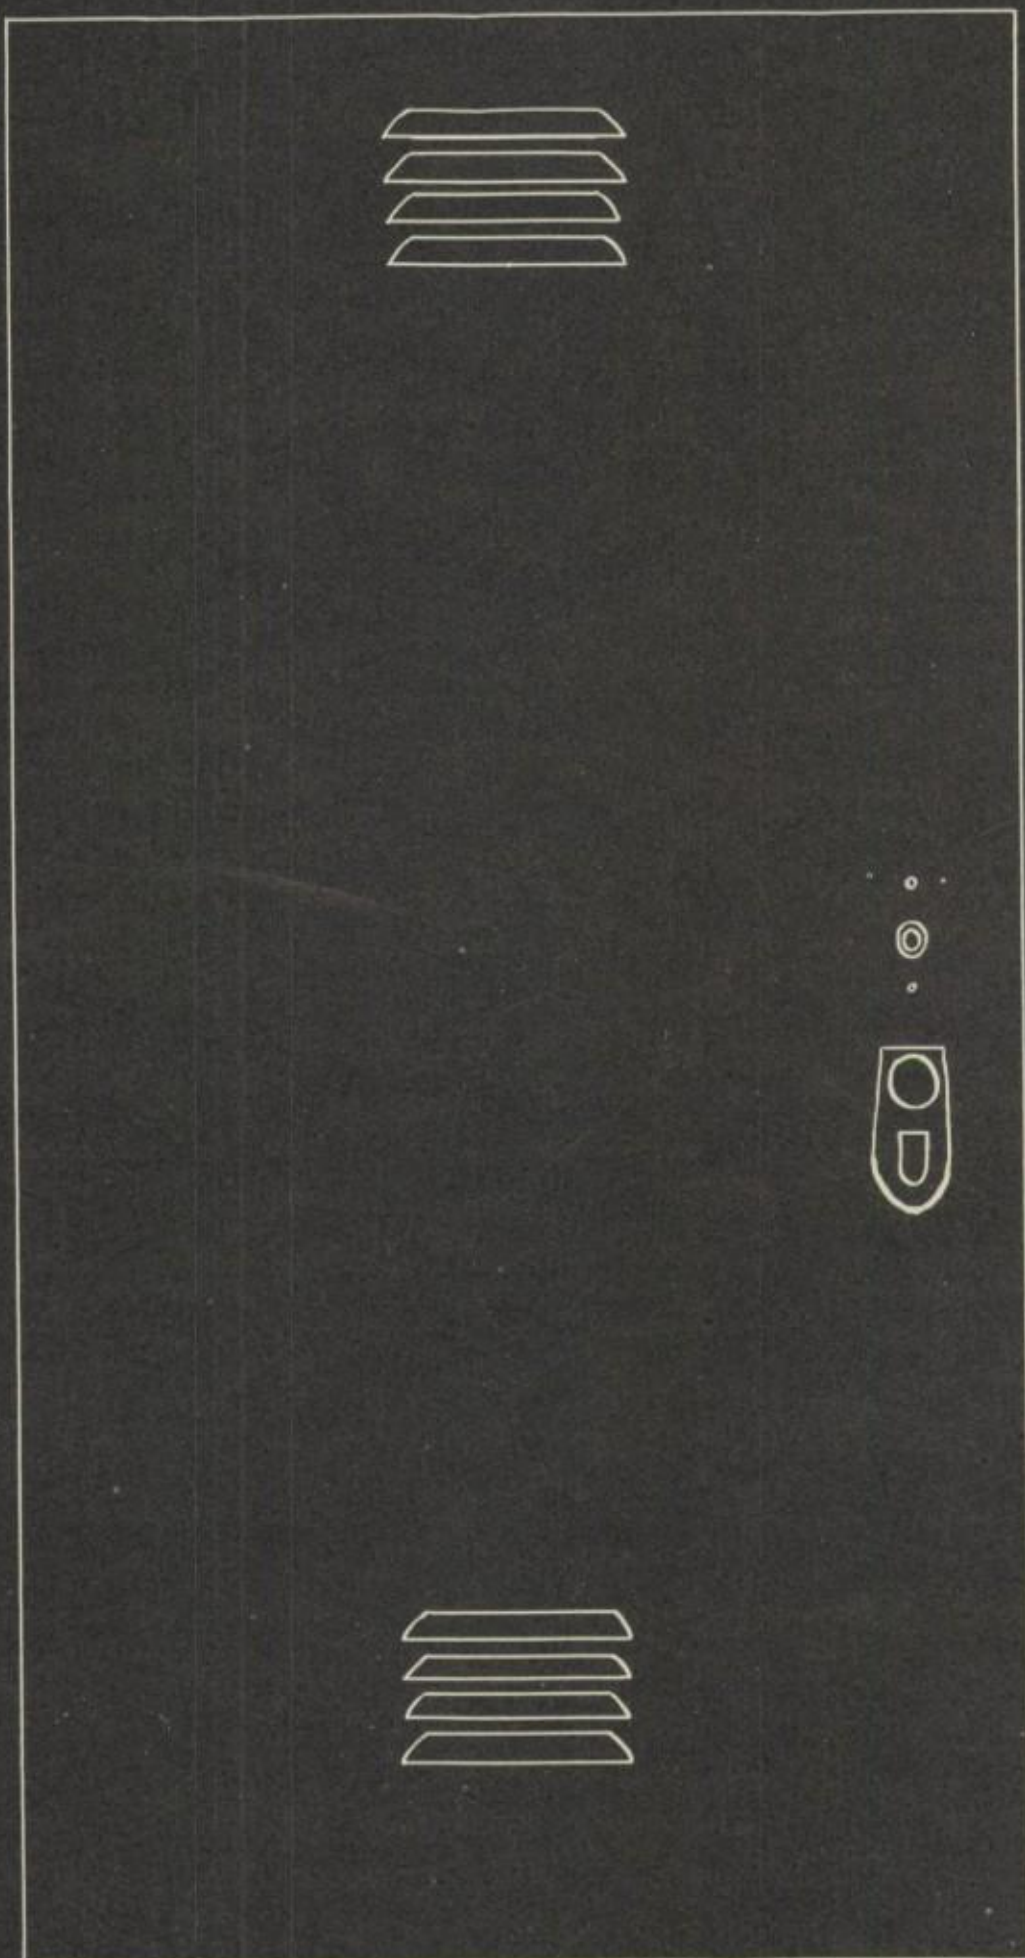

J. Crumpacker, J. Lovell construct a trailer under the guidance of Mr. Wilhelm.

C. West, D. Howell, J. Henderson, R. Simmons, W. Duffy check the morning paper.

E. Huffman, C. West write the equation that equals the Chemistry experiment that R. Keith, V. Cook, Mr. Bowman are doing.

L. Snider, S. Bryant, Mrs. Sutphin, C. Greer, J. Duerr look at slides under the microscope.

Sports

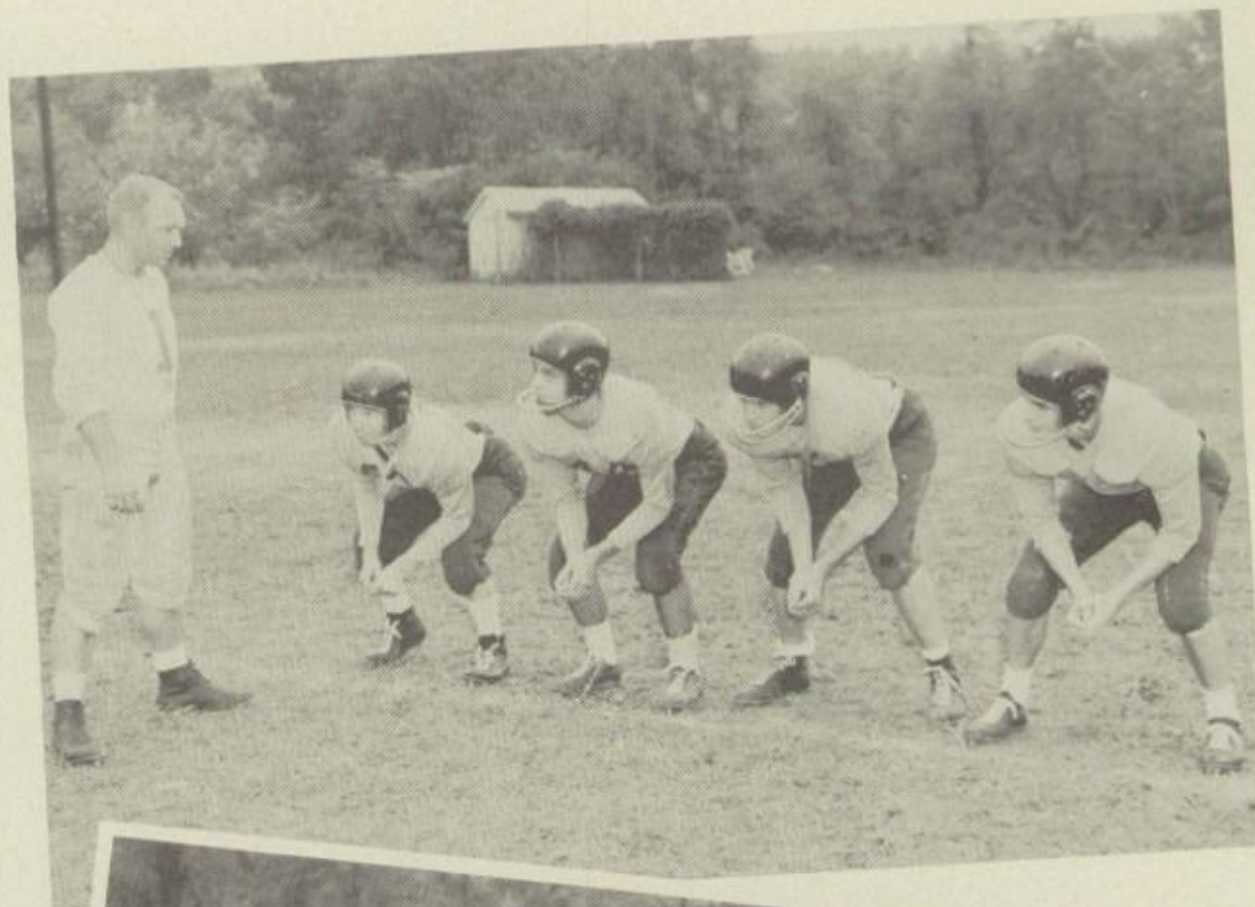

The door on a locker is depended upon to furnish equipment for the participants in sports. Day in and day out the lockers serve our athletes faithfully. As the locker door is a prime factor in our sports so do sports play a great part in our school.

Activities

When we enter a car door we enter a door which will take us somewhere. This is also true when we enter the activities in our school. The activities lead us forward to new and inspiring heights just as a car takes us onward.

The Student Council consists of representatives and presidents of the home rooms of the high school. It serves as a median between the faculty and the students thus strengthening the student-teacher relationship.

The Student Council represents the opinions of the students at Troutville and supervises many of the activities at the school.

This year the Student Council sent five representatives to the District S.C.A. meeting which was held in November. Through the months we have held an honor roll, Sweetheart Dance, and May Day Program.

The Beta Club is a type of honor club which is made up of those students in the school who maintain a B average in their studies. The Club's objectives are: To encourage effort, promote character, stimulate achievement, and to assist students to continue their education after high school.

The purpose of this organization is the promotion of the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership among high school students. Its sole function is to encourage the student to make himself a real asset to his school and community.

This year, the Troutville High Beta Club collected food and clothing for needy families at Christmas in carrying out one of its main projects. The rest of the projects were ways to make money, such as a talent show, selling refreshments during exams and ball games, and producing a three-act play. This money was then used to send as many members as possible to the Beta Convention held in Richmond. This crowned a successful year for the Troutville Beta Club.

The primary aim of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agricultural leadership, co-operation, and citizenship.

During the past year, the Troutville F.F.A. has taken an active part and placed high in the B-R-B Federation contests of which it is a member. These contests, such as the crop, dairy, forestry, and poultry contests, help to culture more interest and better knowledge concerning the different fields of agriculture.

Each F.F.A. boy carries out two or more farm projects that increase his familiarity with farm life. The entire F.F.A. program is very efficient and plays a large part in fitting boys for future farming.

A store door very well portrays the friendliness of the merchants whose advertisements are shown in the following pages. Many of these doors were entered before these advertisements were completed. A store door leads us to merchandise so we hope these pages will lead you to the same as you read our advertisements.

another milestone . . .

As members of the 1957 graduating class, you have completed an important step towards leadership. Ahead, there will be many milestones as you reach even greater goals.

With possibilities unlimited, your work, achievements, initiative and effort will help keep our country great and strong.
